

THANK YOU...

A million times!

In just two years, the LPS Foundation has contributed over $1.1 million to Littleton Public Schools in support of educational projects and programs across the district, increasing total contributions beyond the $4 million mark. WOW!

THANK YOU to our community; individuals, businesses, alumni, parents, LPS employees and others who have invested in making public education in Littleton the best educational experience for our children and future. We are grateful for your continued support!
