SUMMER FOOD RESOURCES

70. Englewood Eats: Englewood Summer Meal Program: Children ages 1–18 can enjoy a meal at no cost during the summer months, no matter if they are enrolled in the district/program or not. Children must be present and meals are required to be consumed onsite. Adults can purchase meals for anyone 19 over years old ($2.25 for breakfast and $4.00 for lunch).
71. Aurora Public Schools: APS is sponsoring the 2023 Summer Meal Service Program. We will provide breakfast and lunch free of charge to any child 18 years of age and under, May 30 through Aug. 2. Please note that meals must be consumed on site.
72. Jewish Family Service, Lunchbox Express: Lunchbox Express is a mobile food delivery system that distributes free breakfast and lunch to kids during the summer. The program is dedicated to feeding hungry Colorado kids when school is out and children don't have access to free or reduced-fee lunches in their schools. There is no proof of income required. All children 18 and under qualify for free meals, no matter where they live or go to school.
73. USDA Meals for Kids Site Finder: Actively updated website that was developed by USDA Food and Nutrition Services (FNS) to help children, parents, and others quickly and easily find summer meal sites near them. The site finder, available for use at no charge, is a web-based application that also works on tablets, smartphones and other mobile devices without the need to download. The mapping tool allows users to enter an address, city, state or zip code to find up to 50 nearby locations, along with their addresses, hours of operation, and contact information, and directions. Click Here to find meals near you!
74. Food Bank of the Rockies – Find Food: Enter your address to find a food distribution near you. For the most accurate results, please include the name of your city AND the ZIP code. To locate the Pantry and Food Finder, click here.
75. We Don't Waste Mobile Food Market: The Mobile Food Market is a monthly opportunity where everyone in need can come to shop for FREE food. Attendees are able to select the items that they want and need. We cannot guarantee specific food items ahead of time, but will have a selection of produce, dairy, proteins, bakery products, and shelf-stable products. The Market is free and open to everyone!
