New Books – August 2015

Below is a list of newly acquired books for the Arapahoe High School Library. The titles are grouped by genre or type and listed alphabetically by title. Brief summaries, along with awards or distinctions as well as series notations are provided.

A number of titles are now available digitally and may be read using the Follett BryteWave App. More information about accessing titles digitally can be found at the Library's website (<http://lps2.it/ahslibrary>).

Just a note about the awards:

- Alex Awards are given to ten books written for adults that have special appeal to young adults, ages 12 through 18.
- Michael L. Printz Award annually honors the best book written for teens, based entirely on its literary merit, each year.
- The Young Adult Library Services Association (a division of the American Library Association) develops yearly the Best Fiction for Young Adults list.
- The Teens' Top Ten is a "teen choice" list, where teens nominate and choose their favorite books of the previous year.

In the Unlikely Event by Judy Blume

In 1987, Miri Ammerman returns to her hometown of Elizabeth, New Jersey, to attend a commemoration of the worst year of her life. Thirty-five years earlier, when Miri was fifteen, and in love for the first time, a succession of airplanes fell from the sky, leaving a community reeling. Against this backdrop of actual events that Blume experienced in the early 1950s, when airline travel was new and exciting and everyone dreamed of going somewhere, she paints a vivid portrait of a particular time and place—Nat King Cole singing “Unforgettable,” Elizabeth Taylor haircuts, young (and not-so-young) love, explosive friendships, A-bomb hysteria, rumors of Communist threat. And a young journalist who makes his name reporting tragedy. Through it all, one generation reminds another that life goes on.

Let's Get Lost by Adi Alsaid

During her cross-country adventures following the tragic death of her family, Leila touches the lives of four strangers—Hudson, Bree, Elliot, and Sonia. While forever changing the lives of these four, Leila also discovers an important truth about herself

Endangered by C. J. Box

She was gone. Joe Pickett had good reason to dislike Dallas Cates, even if he was a rodeo champion, and now he has even more—Joe's eighteen-year-old ward, April, has run off with him. And then comes even worse news: The body of a girl has been found in a ditch along the highway—alive, but just barely, the victim of blunt force trauma. It is April, and the doctors aren't sure if she'll recover. Cates denies having anything to do with it—says she ran away from him, too—and there's evidence that points to another man. But Joe knows in his gut who's responsible. What he doesn't know is the kind of danger he's about to encounter.

Finders Keepers by Stephen King

Morris Bellamy is a fan of author John Rothstein and his beloved character Jimmy Gold, but livid that Rothstein hasn't published in decades and now has sold the character rights to Jimmy Gold to an advertising firm, Bellamy kills Rothstein, robs him, and finds notebooks containing the notes for another Jimmy Gold novel in the process. He is sent to jail for another crime, however, and the notebooks remain hidden for decades until they are found by thirteen-year-old Pete Saubers. Now, Pete and his family are in Bellamy's crosshairs when the psychopath is released after thirty-five years in prison.
