Pay What You Want:

Payment for the camp is "Pay What You Want...No Questions Asked!" We suggest a rate of $150 per child because that covers the cost of the robot your child gets to take home plus other incidentals for the week. If you choose an amount greater than $150 per child, the extra funds will be considered a donation to help cover the cost of those who cannot pay anything. You will be issued a letter recognizing your tax-deductible donation.

Payment can be by cash/check on the first day of camp or online at code4kids.me/give.
