LPS Foundation Spotlight November 2023

From Canvas to Clay: LPS Foundation Funds Student Creativity

You can't help but feel creative in Ms. Hanschen's art studio. The walls are adorned with colorful, creative expressions, every corner is filled with supplies, and Ms. Hanschen's enthusiasm for her subject matter is contagious. It is all part of a choice-based art program, partially funded by the LPS Foundation, that encourages students to create, experiment, and grow.

The studio got an upgrade last year in the form of a ceramics space as a result of another grant from the LPS Foundation. Now, students can express their artistic ideas in the third dimension. Students will use these materials to build and deepen their skills and proficiency as ceramicists year after year. We're so grateful to our community for supporting educator grants like these.

LPS Foundation Funded Workshops Empower Parents in the Digital Era

Let's be honest. Influence: Addressing Vaping, Drugs, and Alcohol in the Digital Age and CyberSavvy Parenting. The workshops provided tips for healthy decision-making, setting limits, and creating a safe home environment.

Lo más Destacado de la Fundación LPS de noviembre de 2023

Del Lienzo a la Arcilla: La Fundación LPS financia la creatividad de los estudiantes

No puedes evitar sentirte creativo en el estudio de arte de la Sra. Hanschen. Las paredes están adornadas con expresiones coloridas y creativas, todos los rincones están llenos de materiales y el entusiasmo de la Sra. Hanschen por sus contenidos creativos. Todo forma parte de un programa artístico basado en la creación, financiado en parte por la Fundación LPS, que alienta a los alumnos a crear, experimentar y crecer.

El año pasado, gracias a otra donación de la Fundación LPS, el estudio se modernizó con un espacio para la cerámica. Ahora, los estudiantes pueden expresar sus ideas artísticas en tercera dimensión. Los estudiantes utilizarán estos materiales para construir y mejorar sus habilidades y destrezas como alfareros año tras año. Estamos muy agradecidos a nuestra comunidad por apoyar becas para educadores como estas.
