

I've Been Accepted!
Now what?

One or more acceptance offers

Get more information

Ask questions

Visit or revisit the campus(es)

Establish email communication

Set up a campus email account

Check email often! (Really! Often!)

Respond to all requests sent from the campus(es).

You may miss very important information or deadlines if you don't respond to email

Compare financial aid awards

If you haven't already done so, apply for financial aid at FAFSA.gov. Set up an appointment with Post Grad if you need help.

Once you receive financial aid offers, talk to your family, counselor, and Post Grad about which are the best.

Make your decision

You don't have to decide overnight, but don't miss the reply deadline!

Many colleges don't expect your final decision until May 1st, but always confirm this!

If you don't send your deposit in time, you risk losing your place

Respond to the college(s)

Once you've decided which college you want to attend, inform all the colleges that accepted you about your decision (not a requirement, but considerate).

Respond to the college you've decided to attend. Make sure to send the following by the deadline:

- Your admissions acceptance letter
- A deposit
- Your financial aid acceptance letter
- Any other required items

Housing

On-campus, off-campus

Be aware of contract options and deadlines

Freshman housing is not guaranteed at some campuses

You will be notified VIA EMAIL or through your student portal about your housing options and requirements

Orientation

Sign up for orientation

Register for classes and academic advising

You will be notified via email about these things...check your email!

Student Health Services

Submit immunization documents and health insurance info

Insurance can be waived if student is covered under parents'/guardians' health

You are automatically signed up for campus health insurance, so if you don't need it, submit the waiver!

Avoid Senioritis!

Acceptance is conditional!

Keep working...colleges will see your final transcript.

BUT...enjoy your last months in high school!

If you don't remember
anything else,
REMEMBER
THIS!

Log in to your student portal and check your college assigned email regularly!

This is the primary way your college will communicate with you.
