

LPS Foundation Spotlight January 2025

Out and About with the LPS Foundation

The end of 2024 was filled with a flurry of activities for the LPS Foundation. In November, LPSF Executive Director Stef Carroll and Rick Dodds, CEO of AdventHealth Littleton, visited Littleton High School to deliver a $2,000 Stride grant check.

The Foundation also participated in the South Metro Denver Chamber Nonprofit Fair at Arapahoe Community College alongside many other Littleton nonprofits.

In addition, we were honored to be a part of the 14th annual LPS Poetry Slam on November 19, where several students stepped up to the mic to share their powerful voices. The LPS Foundation has funded this inspiring event since its inception.

December kicked off with a Broncos and Brews fundraising party at Max Taps! Thanks to board members Erin Weaver and Megan Wilson for organizing such a fun event.

Fundraising for the Foundation was also an element of the SOSU Artist Collective Holiday Shopping Event. Community members shopped, sipped, and raised funds for LPSF at this festive outing.

Last but certainly not least, Stef Carroll visited the new offices of Chatham Financial, where she accepted a $10,000 check from Savills to honor Chatham Financial's long-standing partnership with Littleton Public Schools. A huge thanks to Chatham Financial and Savills.

We're looking forward to more exciting events in the New Year!
